It is said that out of 3748 soldiers appointed to office by President Cleveland and 2650 were ex-Confederates, to 98 in 100. We print this merely as a news item, but we expect our neighbors across the hall, will take a fit and yoll bloody shirt. —Maryville Republican.

France is the most heavily taxed country in Europe or the world, the rate being $21.40 per capita yearly. In the United States the national revenues average $11.30 per capita, in Italy $11.60, in Great Britain $11.60, in Germany $11.18, in Russia $7.20 and in Spain $6.60. Owing to her arts and manufacturing industries, however, the burden of $21.40 in France is not as onerous and distressing as the $7.20 in Russia or the $6.60 in Spain.

The average plurality of the successful candidates on the New York State tickets is between 5,000 and 6,000. The total vote is 1,023,000. The plurality is therefore only a trifle more than one half of one per cent, of the total vote. This demonstrates how small a margin of votes is required to carry an election one way or the other. If two per cent, of the stay-at home Republicans had voted their candidates, would have been elected. Of course there are many other facts, but this is a certain one.

The $1,000 check of President Cleveland to the New York committee was "oil upon the troubled waters." It silenced 10,000 noisy mouths more effectively than a porous plaster could have done it pressed tight over the apertures. It paid bigger dividends to Democracy than any investment the administration has made since the 4th of March. Suppose it did violate section 14 of the civil-service law, the President the very next day turned out of office the Surveyor General of Arizona for giving $10 for the purpose of erecting a stand for a Blaine and Logan meeting last fall. Violating the law instead, you see, doesn't interfere with the President's enforcing the law against others. —EX.

It Means the Syndicate.

We copy elsewhere a significant article from the Fulton, Callaway County Telegraph. This is an old newspaper, an able one, and has been in the Democratic harness, man and boy, these thirty years and more. It is to-day and always has been, staid, dignified, and invariably conservative. It is one of the strongest Democratic newspapers in the state, and when it leads off in any given direction it always has a substantial following.

What the Telegraph complains of has been going on every since Cleveland's inauguration. If a list were made of all the appointments from Missouri up to date, it would be a spotted, pebbled, and variegated list politically, and a list which would show as few working Democrats as it would be possible to crowd into the space which contained it.

The truth is, the great Democratic party of Missouri is hoisted, and dominated, and led hither and thither by a little Senatorial Syndicate, whose own personal interests go to make up the standard of all merit and whose own individual whim, or fancy, or self-assurance, goes to make or mar the fortunes of the various applicants for federal office.

Some splendid Democrats have been appointed, it is true—some Democrats who deserve anything at the hands of their party, if courage any longer is worth a $1,200 clerkship, or if life-long devotion to principle, or a profession which showed its faith by its works for twenty-four years, were worth the baubles they have received from these princes of the purple who seem to look upon a personal succession as a matter of divine right, and who—when they are brought under the righteous fire of comment or criticism—have a transient eagerness to rise up wrathfully and cry "sacilego," "sacilego!"

There is too much bossism in Missouri to-day, and too much of a political corporation. Men who have been hewing wood and sawing water for their party ever since 1861, and who would not take an office if each letter that went to spell it had a diamond to go along with it, are tired of little men and little policies. There is where the revolt has begun. There is where the revolt will grow, and grow, and grow. There is where the revolt will finally become a revolution.

It is not quite time yet to attack pomposity, hypocrisy, greed, selfishness, and false pretence among the of the syndicate who make everything political in the state pay tribute to them in some shape or fashion, and who have fought their parasites and tools that they have only to denounce a man outside of the ring to destroy him. The men who mean to assert their political manhood in the near future are organizing at this very hour, and they are no more for the throne of the withdrawal of official patronage and recognition, than they care for one of the syndicate's broken pledges, or one of the syndicate's specious, smiling, sneaking, we had almost and lying, promises to deliver.

The Telegraph is but one of a class of fifty county newspapers which mean to make it hot along the whole line when the fight really opens, and if one wants to get the honest truth about Democratic rule in Missouri in Missouri, let him simply watch the country newspapers. —St. Joseph Gazette.

New York Independent Republicans of New York will hereafter be known only as "wags," the "mug" was smashed on election day last week.

Odds And Ends.

The coming Easter will fall on the 25th of April. This has not occurred before since 1754, and will not happen again until 1943.

The White House having been numbered among the places that close, there seems to be nothing left for the office seekers but to go home.

Etiquette is a studied style of behavior for particular occasions. Good manners stay by a man all the time and are more important.

A jury at Frederick, Dakota, that had been out for 20 hours considering a knotty problem, were allowed to separate to fight a prairie fire that was threatening the town.

The President of a life insurance company recently received a letter in which the writer said: "In case of death please explain to me what the aires would get when I die."

Carl Schurz is trying to buy the Boston Post. His first editorial work was on the Detroit Post; he left that for the St. Louis Westliche Post, and more recently edited the New York Evening Post. He evidently likes the name of Post.

A man who has kept account of the number of kisses exchanged with his wife since their union consents to its publication as follows: First year, 36, 500; second year, 10,000; third year, 3,650; fourth year, 130; fifty year, 2. He then left off keeping the record.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Should be kept constantly at hand, for use in emergencies of the household. Many a mother, started in the night by the hoarse sounds of Croup, finds the little sufferer, with red and swollen face, gasping for air. In such cases Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is invaluable. Mrs. Emma Gedney, 120 West 128 St., New York, writes: "While in the country, last winter, my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with Croup. It seemed as if he would die from strangulation. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral was tried in small and frequent doses, and, in less than half an hour, the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the Pectoral saved my darling's life." Mrs. Clara B. Landon, Guilford, Conn., writes: "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I find in small and frequent doses, and, in less than half an hour, the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the Pectoral saved my darling's life."

Saved My Life,

and also the life of my little son. As he was troubled with Croup, I dare not be without this remedy in the house." Mrs. J. Gregg, Lowell, Mass., writes: "My children have repeatedly taken Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for Croup and Croup. It gives immediate relief, followed by a cure." Mrs. Mary E. Evans, Scranton, Pa., writes: "I have two little boys, both of whom have been, from infancy, subject to violent attacks of Croup. About six months ago we began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and it acts like magic. In a few minutes after the child takes it, he breathes easily and rests well. Every mother ought to know what a blessing I have found in Ayer's Cherry Pectoral." Mrs. Wm. C. Reid, Freehold, N. J., writes: "In our family, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been a blessing for many years. In cases of Croup and Coughs, we take

EXCURSION TRAINS!

DAILY TO ST. JOSEPH AND RETURN.

The excursion trains that have been run by the merchants of St. Joseph have created such an impression among the wholesale merchants of our city and the retail merchants along the entire line that they believe unless they can break them up the "shops of their gains are gone." Why? Because, if the wholesale merchants can get their goods to the retail merchants at a gross profit of 25 per cent, and the retail merchants can sell to the consumers at 50 per cent that is a paying business and the retail merchants can see that you are paying a double profit at that. Now, ladies and gentlemen of St. Joseph, we are going to run an excursion train that can't stop. It will run on our own line. Below is a coupon of ticket that explains itself.
